

Proclamation

This year, the Kahului Scottish Rite Bodies celebrates its 100th anniversary. These men share a tradition of excellence that emphasizes personal integrity, commitment to family and service to the community.

Officially known as the Valley of Kahului, Orient of Hawai'i, Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite, the Kahului Scottish Rite Bodies was founded in 1906 by 11 men from Maui. Among the founders was the legendary Henry Perrine Baldwin, who served as its first treasurer.

As a fraternal organization, the Kahului Scottish Rite Bodies have been extremely generous in their philanthropic endeavors, contributing greatly to numerous organizations including annual scholarships to deserving Maui students.

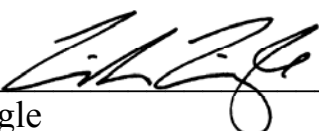

On the evening of October 28, 2006, the Kahului Scottish Rite Bodies will celebrate their centennial anniversary with a banquet at the Royal Lahaina Resort.

THEREFORE, I, LINDA LINGLE, Governor of the State of Hawai'i, and I, JAMES R. "DUKE" AIONA, JR., Lieutenant Governor, do hereby proclaim October 28, 2006, as in Hawai'i, and offer our congratulations for the dedication and commitment of its members in proudly serving our citizens living on the Valley Isle.

DONE at the State Capitol, in the Executive Chambers, Honolulu, State of Hawai'i, this sixteenth day of October 2006.

Linda Lingle
Governor, State of Hawai'i

James R. "Duke" Aiona, Jr.
Lieutenant Governor, State of Hawai'i
